REVIEW OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE QUEENSLAND PUBLIC SERVICE AND PUBLIC SECTOR

The Public Service Commission have asked that the following information be circulated to all public servants and public sector employees to seek your participation in a review of the Public Service Code of Conduct. Your participation is entirely voluntary and up to you individually.

On 1st January 2011, the Code of Conduct for the Queensland Public Service (the Code) commenced.

The code was introduced for all public service agencies and their employees to ensure consistent standards, enhance accessibility and achieve greater awareness of the positive values that underpin the public service. This review will focus on the extent to which expectations about ethical conduct are clearly and consistently conveyed through the Code.

As the Code applies to all public service and public sector staff it is important that you have an opportunity to provide feedback to the review. Information about the Code and its review can be accessed at the Public Service Commission’s Ethics website:

Attached to this Code2 you will find some questions that will assist you in providing your feedback.

You are encouraged to participate in the review and provide any feedback that you believe relevant. Please provide your feedback directly to the Public Service Commission by email to ethics@psc.qld.gov.au by 4pm Friday 28 October 2011.
