

Volume 26 Number 55

11 September 2012

SEPTEMBER 11 ATTACKS

A DAY TO REMEMBER

11 years ago today, 343 of our brother and sister firefighters died in the line of duty. Today, people from around the world will remember the sacrifice these firefighters made to save the lives of strangers.

We should not let the memories of any fallen comrades pass without recognition and I ask that you consider these New York firefighters in your thoughts today.

John Oliver
State Secretary