

Volume 3 Number 10

5 October 2012

All Queensland Career Firefighters and Station Officers
Monday 8th October 2012

On Monday, 8 October 2012, there will be protected industrial action taken between 1030-1230 hours.

Note: Work is to continue as normal outside of these hours.

Firefighter and Station Officers:

(Except Brisbane Roster officers as they have already taken a 24 hour strike on 27 August 2012)

Industrial Action:

There will be a ban on the performance of all work except:

The performance of, the processing of, and responding and mobilising resources to:

000 emergency calls;
Fire calls;
Primary alarm activations;
Turnout notifications.

This is 'protected industrial action' it is unlawful for QFRS to threaten any reprisals against members taking this action, other than to withhold pay for the period.

This action will be taken in support of our enterprise bargaining.

JOHN OLIVER

State Secretary